

STORY BRINGS BIG RESPONSE

Tulsans Shower Invalid Bertha Monroe With Gifts and "Eats."

ONE OFFERS A TRIP

Would Send Girl and Her Mother to Colorado for a Vacation.

One of the happiest little girls in Tulsa today is Bertha Monroe, the child who is suffering with tuberculosis, for her room now is filled with gifts, from the hospital, from many banks of fruit. More than a dozen people drove to the humble little home on South Peoria street yesterday from 5 o'clock in the morning until late last night, and left large boxes of toys and baskets of fruit and candy.

An article in the Tulsa World yesterday morning told of Bertha Monroe, a 16-year-old girl who has been in bed for five months, and who has had no time to play with. The best of dozens of children were touched by the condition of the child, and many tender hearted little girls wanted to give her all their toys. Many grown persons, who have no children, sent fruit and candy.

There was a 16-year-old Tulsa girl who read the article in The World and her heart was so touched that she said to her mother, "Mother, I shall give her my doll." By "My doll" she meant that she would part with it, and that she had had since she was 4 years old, and that she cherished above all her childhood toys. She had laid the doll away in her trunk to keep. She sent the doll to Bertha, and if she could have seen how Bertha held the doll in her arms and loved it, she would never regret the loss of the doll. Last night Bertha was showing the doll to all who came to see her, and it has given her joy to go to sleep."

A man who did not give his name, called Mrs. Rose yesterday morning, and said that he would send the little girl and her mother to Colorado or some other health resort, and keep them there at his expense, until the child was cured. He said that his wife would get the child's clothes ready. Mrs. Rose will take the matter up with Mrs. Monroe today, and arrangements will be made to send the child to Colorado.

Bertha received twenty dolls, six of them large ones, and the others varying from celluloid dolls to keepsakes. She has not counted her paper dolls yet, but she says she thinks she has 200. She received many books, such as "Alice in Wonderland" and other fairy stories. The first seat was welcomed by the mother, because the attending physician says Bertha must have lots of fun and Mrs. Monroe has not been left alone long. Mrs. Monroe to the third, she says. Some promised to bring chickens and other nourishing food for the child.

Mrs. Monroe says that she cannot thank The World and the kind people of Tulsa enough for their assistance. She says that the Humane society and the ladies of the Emmanuel Baptist church have helped her, but they have not been able to supply all her needs. She is a widow and works as a janitress in one of the office buildings. She makes $18 a week, but has to support her mother and 2 children on this.

Mrs. C. S. Rose, who is interested in this family and the invalid widow woman who needed the invalid chair, says that people began calling her at 6 o'clock yesterday morning to offer their services in caring for the little girl and the invalid woman. One man called at 6 o'clock and said that he knew where Mrs. Rose could buy a wheel chair, in good condition, for $10. In about 2 hours another man called up and said that he did not have an invalid chair, but he would give Mrs. Rose the money with which to buy one. Mrs. Rose bought the chair offered by the first man and the woman who has not been out doors for two years was wheeled to one of the parks yesterday afternoon where she enjoyed the sunshine and fresh air.
